An Anniversary. St. Aloysius Commandery, No. 61 and Ladies Auxiliary, No. 112, Knights of St. John held a very enjoyable social and dance in their rooms last night in Van Antlen street.

The affair was in charge of the Auxiliary and was in commemoration of the second anniversary of the organization.

A very pleasing musical programme had been arranged. President William H. Meagher opened the entertainment with an address, followed by a short speech by Past President J. J. Bannon.

The programme was as follows: Monologue, Wm. Moore; Song, The Mysterions Four; T. Louis, J. Scullin, T. Grinnity and T. Scullin.

Chorus singing, J. Mahoney; Recitation, Miss M. Kinsella; Piano solo, Miss A. Giblin; Dance, Paul Lyman; Solo, M. Tenor, Frank J. Neill; Solo, baritone, P. J. Walsh and F. Matthews; Fancy dancing, F. Sweeney.

A three round boxing match between Charles Acre and James Hester concluded the programme.

Following the entertainment a bountiful lunch was served by the auxiliary. Dancing was indulged in by all who cared to dance. The music was furnished by Eaton's orchestra.

Coal Drivers' Demands. In behalf of Local Teamsters' union No. 121, I. R. of T., we wish to call attention to inaccuracies in the reference to the demands of the coal team drivers' union in last evening's issue of the Advertiser.

The statement that a request was made for an increase in wages from $1.75 to $2 a day is correct. The statement in reference to a demand for shorter hours is false and if there is a walking delegate here the members of the union are not aware of it.

By order, LOCAL No. 121, I. R. of T.

Wide Awake and Prepared. Great hustling and preparations has been going on at the Palace Jewelry Store on account of the busy wedding season just opening.

The school in a body reinitiated Rudyard Kipling's "Recessional" this morning at chapel.

The base ball team had their final practice before the game to-morrow at Syracuse. The team is in good condition and expect to return home victorious.

A G. A. R. Memorial Service. At a meeting of the Session of the Central Presbyterian church held last evening the proposition of the Beethoven Choral club to sing Sunday evening, May 28, was accepted, and arrangements will be made for a beautiful G. A. R. Memorial service.

The large platform will be erected in front to accommodate 75 singers. Prof. Doucek will conduct. Mrs. E. M. Hyatt, the regular pianist of the club, will preside at the piano and on the hymns. Organist Adams will also assist.

This will probably be the last appearance of the club in concert work until Fall.

The Bowling Fever. Although late in the season the bowling fever has struck Auburnians good and hard. The Durnford alleys in Market street are now being placed in good condition by a firm composed of crack local bowlers and they will be ready for use next week with new pins.
